LOCAL.

To-day is hot and sunny. The back of the winter is broken.

Parliament has been prorogued until Monday, March 25th.

Grumpy is reported amongst children in Stony Plain settlement and also at Victoria.

The Winnipeg Commercial says that J. Cragh has become proprietor of the Calgary Tribune.

On Thursday night the Salvation army had a trades procession and trade entertainment.

W. B. STRENNETT reports furs purchased during last week to the amount of about $60 in small lots.

Rev. F. EBERHARDT preached in German in the fire hall on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. He will hold service there every third Sunday.

The Toronto Week of Feb. 8th, has a short blank verse poem of some merit, dated from Edmonton, N. W. T. and signed "Robert Connell."

The officers of the Presbyterian church beg to acknowledge the receipt of $4.64 contributed by the members of the fire brigade towards the church funds and to thank the gentlemen who so kindly donated same.

The Canada Gazette of Feb. 9th, contains the appointment of Major Griesbach, N. W. M. Police as honorary aide de camp to the governor general. Major Griesbach is the only mounted police officer so honored.

W. HUMBERSTONE has withdrawn his appeal in his case against the Edmonton Ferry Company and has decided to take proceedings against the town on the ground that the town sold to him something it had no right to sell.

W. J. G. DICKSON of South Edmonton, has arranged with the C. A. C. company for the handling of a car of farm horses, from four to five years old, from the company's farms. Also second hand machinery, wagons and farm implements.

W. J. G. DICKSON shipped a car of dressed hogs to Vancouver on Friday's train. The car contained 230 hogs of from 100 to 140 lbs. weight. They were purchased chiefly in the Sturgeon river and Clover Bar settlements, at 25 cents a pound.

"Gunner Jingo's Jubilee," is sold in Canada by Williamson & Sons, publishers, Toronto, price $2. It has reached a second edition. It contains 15 full-page illustrations, plates and maps, and numerous thumb nail sketches, and is handsomely bound in cloth.

It has been reported that well water is hard to get in the Morinville settlement. This is not the fact, as N. Brissette who lives a mile and a half from Big Egg lake has a well 50 feet deep which has 25 feet of soft water in it. Egg lake itself however, is getting very shallow.

The Old Man's Knoll, a conspicuous hill in the Clover Bar settlement, has been purchased from the Scottish and Ontario Land Company by W. J. Sufell. It is comprised in the northwest quarter of section 13, township 53, range 23. The price is $4.00 an acre, in ten yearly instalments. It is a particularly fine piece of land.

The auction sale of the stock and effects of the late Arthur Meredith took place at South Edmonton, on Friday last. There was a good attendance and excellent prices were realized for a great part of the effects. Some of the cattle went cheap, particularly two thoroughbred Holstein cows which went for $40 and $47 each. They were not in good condition, however.

OTTAWELL & Co., have secured a timber limit comprising eighteen sections on the north shore of Cooking lake and will commence sawing with their portable saw mill immediately. They have cut a road through the hills from the Clover Bar trail on the west side of Old Man's creek to the mill. The limit contains both green and dry timber and its being worked up will be of great advantage to the adjacent settlements.

At the meeting of the South Edmonton Creamery Co., held in South Edmonton on Saturday last, the following resolution was passed: Moved by R. McKernan, seconded by D. Grummett that Messrs. Wilson, McLaren, and Dinwoodie be appointed a committee to meet the committee from the Edmonton Creamery Co. and examine their books, machinery and plant and to find out if the required stock can be subscribed from South Edmonton, it being understood that the required stock will be subscribed provided that the machinery and plant be placed at South Edmonton, so that the creamery can be in operation by the 1st of May, 1895, and report to a meeting to be held in South Edmonton on Saturday the 23rd inst.

TRAIN left Calgary about 8 a. m.

ODDFELLOWS calico ball on Friday night.

FANCY dress ball to-morrow night under the auspices of the Thistle Hockey club.

THE reception committee appointed by the town council have arranged for the presentation of the several addresses to Lieutenant governor Mackintosh in Robertson hall at 9 o'clock, on the Monday evening, Feb. 25th, when the public will have an opportunity to meet his honor, and hear his replies to the addresses.

THE grain market is somewhat peculiar at present. There is a large amount of grain on hand, very little is being shipped and very little being brought in. The price of oats has climbed to 29c to 30c for first class seed, and to 25c for good feed oats. Wheat is up to 60c at the mill, and barley is the same as before 25c to 27c.

A MEETING of the committee of management to arrange for a banquet to Lieutenant governor Mackintosh, was held in the council chamber on Friday afternoon. Dr. Wilson chairman, E. C. Emery, secretary.

Working committee were struck, and it was decided to give the banquet in Robertson hall on Tuesday evening, Feb. 25th. Tenders for furnishing the dinner will be received to-day and the price of the tickets will then be fixed.

A football match between the Edmonton and South Edmonton (boys) took place on Saturday afternoon last, and resulted in favor of Edmonton by 3 goals to none. The Edmonton team consisted of goal, L. Goodridge; backs, A. Brunelle and M. McDermott; half backs, N. Lauder, S. Rowland, and R. McDonald; forwards, A. McLeod, R. Bellamy, J. Robertson, C. Richardson, H. Cameron. Capt. R. Bellamy. F. Bissett was captain of the South Edmonton team.

D. Ross is buying and packing pork extensively this winter. He is paying from $4.50 to $4.75 per 100 lbs. cash, and will take large as well as small hogs. Mr. Ross is a professor in curing pork and can handle any quantity. It is understood that a pork packing business on a large scale will be established in Edmonton next season. It is certainly poor business to ship out fresh pork at 5c a pound and bring in bacon at 10c to 15c. To raise enough pork for home consumption and cure it right here is as neat a way of beating the C. P. R. freight rates on grain as can be devised.

THE Bachelor Girls of Edmonton invited their friends to the number of about sixty to a reception tendered by them to the Koney Island club, in Robertson hall on the evening of Thursday, St. Valentine's day. While the title assumed by the young ladies giving the reception or rather ball, might be misleading, in every other particular it was all that such an occasion could be. The hall was most tastefully decorated and comfortably furnished. The supper which was given on the stage, was perfect, and the music was furnished by Messrs. Purches, Mortimer and Andrews. The ball programmes were works of art, each one having a pretty hand painted design on the outside. Dancing was kept up with spirit until an early hour.

A SUCCESSFUL concert in aid of Christ church, Poplar lake, was held at the residence of Jas. McDiarmid on Thursday evening last. The following programme was presented: Piano solo, Miss Shand; song, Miss Mitchell; song, Mrs. Mitchell; song, F. T. Gregory; reading, Mr. Mitchell; song, Miss S. M. Mitchell; song, R. McIntyre; duet, Misses Mitchell. The drama of "Snow White," or "Who is the Queen of beauty?" was presented. The characters represented were: King—Miss Maggie Tingley; Queen—Miss Tingley; Huntsman—F. T. Gregory; Maid—Miss Shand; Prince—Miss S. M. Mitchell; Snow White—Miss Mitchell; Dwarfs—Archie, Alex, and Maggie McDiarmid, Bertie Shand, Bertie Tingley, and Geoff and Jas. Mitchell. The drama is drawn from one of Grimm's fairy tales and represents chiefly the doings of the cruel stepmother. The Queen is intensely jealous of Snow White, the King's daughter by a former wife, and is perpetually consulting a magic mirror as to who is the queen of beauty. Always receiving the reply that Snow White is the most beautiful, she engages the huntsman, by promise of reward to kill her. The huntsman takes Snow White into the woods but is prevailed upon to spare her life and she takes refuge in a hut inhabited by seven dwarfs, who, on finding her there agree she should remain and housekeep for them. The Queen consults the mirror again, finds Snow White is still alive, and going to the hut in disguise, tries to poison her. She is rescued by the Prince and everything ends happily as fairy tales always should.

POLICE REDUCTION.

The business of reducing the mounted police has been actively entered upon, but on what principle the reductions are being made or to what number it is intended to reduce the force does not appear. All that does appear is that certain men and officers are being wiped off the list, and the stigma of inefficiency thereby attached to them. It may be perfectly right to reduce the force and it is certainly more than right to get rid (under proper conditions) of inefficient officers and men, but when the discharge is given it is due to the soldier and the country that he served that the reason of his discharge should be distinctly given. It is a cruel thing to discharge officer or man under circumstances which permit the suspicion that he was unfit for longer service, unless he was unfit, and it is entirely improper that an officer or man should be dismissed as unfit without the country which paid him for so long knowing the reason for his services being dispensed with. If dismissals are to be left to the will of the commanding officer—as they evidently are left—favoritism rather than efficiency is the natural result. It is a monstrous thing that officers and men who have served in the force for five, ten, fifteen or even twenty years should be absolutely at the caprice of the commanding officer. Such a thing was never heard of in any military or semi military force in any civilized country, and can only result in utter demoralization. Military discipline is necessary in a force such as the mounted police, and under military discipline the commanding officer necessarily has control over every other officer and every man in the force as long as they are connected with it. But to extend that authority so that he holds absolutely in his hand the future as well as the present of every officer and man, which he does by holding the power of peremptory discharge, the force ceases to be a body amenable only to military discipline, and takes a position in which its members have no rights that the commanding officer is bound to respect. If an officer or man is discharged without any other cause than the necessity of reducing the force, he should receive a discharge with honor and such pension or allowances or privileges as the length of his services properly entitles him to. On the other hand if he is discharged for cause it is unfair that he should have his misdeeds or failings cloaked under the plea that his discharge was necessary for the reduction of the force. That the mounted police is a necessity in the Northwest, almost everyone who knows anything about the country will agree. What its strength should be the BULLETIN is not prepared to argue. Perhaps 1000 men are necessary and perhaps 500 would be sufficient. That depends rather on the men themselves and the way the force is handled than on one or two hundred men more or less. It is foolish to argue, however, that because the presence and exertions of the force have prevented crime to a great extent that therefore their presence and exertions are not necessary. That crime has not occurred to a greater extent than it has, is a tribute to the efficiency of the force rather than a proof that it is unnecessary. As before stated the efficiency of the force rather than its numbers is the true estimate of value received for expenditures upon it, and a system which can only tend to destroy the independence and therefore the usefulness of every officer and man in it—for it may be easily imagined that the more intelligent and therefore the more independent ones would soon be got rid of under this beautiful slave making system—is not a system of economy in any sense of the word. It may have been that this system was begun under the impression that as the mounted police had no friends, anything might be done with them. This is not a matter of friendship for the force or any of the members of it. It is a matter in which the honor of Canada and the welfare of the Northwest are at stake, and no man who values the one or the other can allow such proceedings without the most vigorous protest in his power.

BOARD OF TRADE MEETING.

The annual meeting of the Edmonton board of trade for the election of officers for the ensuing year and other business was held in the town council chamber on Tuesday evening, Feb. 12th. The president John Cameron was in the chair. The secretary, I. Cowie read the supplementary report of the council:

EDMONTON, 12th Feb., 1895.

Supplementary annual report of the Council, to the members of the Board of Trade.

The interim report having been read and adopted at the special general meeting on the 13th November last, your council will at the annual meeting merely bring to your notice more recent occurrences and refer you to that report which was duly published as required by the by-laws, and has no doubt been carefully considered by you.

It was intended that the draft of the proposed pamphlet should have been laid before you at this meeting; but owing to the time and trouble required to prepare our case for the railway rates commission, the preparation of our pamphlet is incomplete, although many statistics have been collected for it.

On the announcement that a commission had been appointed by the government to investigate the charges against the C. P. R. freight rates, your council in conjunction with the town council took prompt steps to secure a sitting of the commissioners here. Notices, calling on parties interested throughout the country to take combined action in preparing a statement, were published with the result that the whole district was unanimous in adopting and endorsing our statement. We have good reason to believe that this effort will be of much future consequence in the reduction of freight rates and the establishment of a great mutual interchange of products between British Columbia and ourselves.

An abridgment of the statement will be circulated among other boards and interested organizations throughout the country and will have the effect of drawing public attention to the enormous advantage we enjoy over any other portion of the Northwest and Manitoba in our proximity to the markets just beyond the mountains in B. C. (which is naturally the richest province of the whole Dominion) and to the ocean beyond.

The hopes raised by Mr. Davis's visit concerning the bridge have again been disappointed and we must still fight doggedly on and keep the matter constantly agitated and in view till perseverance meets its usual reward. The bridge means great things for us; for the construction of the electric railway will immediately follow it and make our town practically the terminus of the railway with all the advantage pertaining thereto.

Now necessities for action on your part will constantly arise and these with the array of unfinished business we regret to bequeath to you will tax all your zeal and energy. That you may be able to carry out all you undertake to a successful issue is the heartfelt desire of your retiring council.

In the unavoidable absence of the treasurer, the financial statement was read by the president showing the finances of the board to be in a healthy condition.

The retiring president, John Cameron, then read the following address:

The year which has just been completed is the first in the existence of the board since its suspension of active work at the end of 1891. It was first organized on May 2nd, 1889, with the primary object of uniting the business men of Edmonton in an effort to attract the attention of home seekers to the advantages offered by the Edmonton district. How successful the effort was is plainly seen, not only in the contrast between Edmonton town and district as it was then and as it is now, but also in the position which it occupies in the public eye and the opinion that is universally entertained as to its future. It can scarcely be believed that in 1889 the board of trade actually had to pay the expenses of former delegates from Calgary to Edmonton, in order to get them to visit this section of the country, so little was Edmonton then known and when known so lightly esteemed. The board continued its active work until December of '91, when with the approach of the railroad and the incorporation of the town, the need of its services along the lines in accordance with which it was organized, seemed to have ceased. But with increase of population and consequent increase of trade, the necessity of an organization which could deal with all the complex features of the business interests of the place again became apparent. The board was re-organized on Feb. 20th, of last year. The immediate cause of re-organization was the evident necessity of being prepared to deal with the question of freight rates and also with that of a traffic bridge. The C. P. R. had already been approached on the question of freight rates and promises of reductions had been given. The bridge matter was the first officially taken up as a result of the action of the board, supported by the town council. A delegation was sent to Ottawa on the subject, who secured the placing of $25,000 in the estimates for the current year for the construction of a traffic bridge at Edmonton. Owing to the opposition that has been made to the site approved by the town council and endorsed by this board, the work has not yet been commenced, but the board has done useful work in reminding the government of the promises made and in removing as far as possible the objections that had been raised to the site. Had it not been for assurances that were supposed to be reliable that the bridge would be in progress before the present date, still further action would have been taken. In view of these assurances having failed it is to be hoped that the officers to be elected to-night will at once re-open communication with the government on the subject.

In March last certain reductions were made by the C. P. R. in rates on grain and cattle to the coast, on coal to Calgary and on hay and straw to points on the MacLeod branch. These reductions were valuable, but not as great as the business of this district is fully entitled to. Correspondence with the C. P. R. was renewed, and the coal rate was still further reduced, but nothing more was secured. On the appointment of the freight rates commission by the Dominion government, the board felt it to be its duty to place before the commissioners a complete statement of our case. To this end considerable expense was incurred and a great deal of pains taken. A complete and exhaustive statement has been placed before the commissioners showing discrimination not only against Edmonton but also against points in British Columbia in regard to farm produce. A synopsis of the statement placed before the commissioners is being printed in pamphlet form for the information of business men at interested points in British Columbia with a view of securing their help towards a reduction of these discriminating rates. Many other matters have come before the attention of the board during the past year upon which action has been taken, such as in regard to the visit of the dairy commissioners, the formation of a health district, an attempt to get the government to bore for coal oil at the Egg Lake discovery of petroleum tar, only 27 miles out, instead of at the Landing where there had been no discovery, 90 miles out; in regard to a public park and show ground for Edmonton, and other minor matters. In all these the desirability and usefulness of united action for business purposes amongst the business men of the place have been made manifest, and no doubt the year to come will show an expansion of usefulness equal to the growth of these questions that will require to be dealt with in connection with the expansion of the grain trade which has taken place and which is rendering necessary the erection of elevators during the coming summer. In order that elevators may be equally accessible to farmers on both sides of the river, they must be erected in the valley and they can only be erected there if the railway track is extended to the valley. The electric railway charter granted at last session of the Dominion parliament to the town of Edmonton, supplies a means whereby the necessary extension of the track can be made. To secure such extension and the erection of elevators, mills, factories and such other enterprises as shall conduce to the welfare of the town and district will no doubt occupy the attention of the new board. Before closing allow me to thank the council for their kindness to me during the year; the secretary for his unceasing and valuable assistance to me and yourselves for the honor you did me in electing me your president.

The election of officers resulted as follows: President, J. A. McDougall; vice president, C. F. Strang; secretary, Isaac Cowie; treasurer, Jas. McDonald; councillors, G. R. F. Kirkpatrick, J. T. Blowey, T. W. Lines, J. Cameron, S. R. Benoit, N. D. Beck, K. A. McLeod, J. D. McBride, Arbitrators, F. Fraser Tims, G. J. Kinnaird, W. S. Edmiston, J. H. Garipey, S. Larue, I. Cowie, T. Bellamy, G. W. Gairdner, C. Gallagher, J. A. McDougall, J. T. Blowey and Jas. McDonald. Votes of thanks were tendered the retiring president and council, E. C. Emery was appointed auditor and the council was constituted a committee to revise the by-laws.

The president and secretary and F. Oliver were appointed a committee to draft an address to be presented to Lieutenant governor Mackintosh on his arrival at Edmonton.

HOCKEY AT FORT SASKATCHEWAN

One of the most interesting matches that has taken place this year between the N. W. M. Police and the Thistles from here was played last Saturday at Fort Saskatchewan. At a previous match the police had won on their own rink. Game commenced at 3.15 p. m. and was played hard from the start. After ten minutes play Brown for the police made the first goal. Just then in a scrimmage Insp. Snyder got his leg badly hurt and had to withdraw. Another player was placed on with little delay and before half time the Edmonton boys had placed two goals to their credit. In the second half the game was fought hard, the police to even matters up and the Thistles to maintain the lead, which they succeeded in doing, placing another goal to their credit after about 14 minutes play. The police then scored another before time was called. The puck was out of play considerably but not much time was lost in facing off. The Rev. Mr. D. Easum acted as referee. F. C. Van Buskirk and Sergt. G. Gaham as umpires. Following is the result:

Brown, N. W. M. P., 1st goal, 10 minutes.
Fulton, Thistles, 2nd " 7 1/2 "
Henry, " 3rd " 12 "
Fulton, " 4th " 15 "
Baker, N. W. M. P., 5th " 11 "

This now leaves the teams with two games each and the final to be played at Edmonton.

In a recent speech at Toronto Mr. Laurier in referring to the Manitoba school question said: "I do not wish to make any political capital out of that. Even if I had it in my power to be borne into office over that question I would not do it. For my part I must tell you frankly that I see in the question but a question of fact. I never saw any question of law or constitutional interpretation. I think it was a question of fact and nothing else. What was the complaint of my fellow countrymen and the Catholics of Manitoba? That the legislature of Manitoba, although in name it establishes a system of non-sectarian schools, imposed upon them a system of Protestant schools, and they ask to be relieved from such a system. I am a firm believer in provincial rights, but I stated on the floor of the Commons and elsewhere that if the complaint was true, if Catholic children were forced to attend Protestant schools, it was such an outrage upon conscience that no Protestant community would tolerate it."

Alberta Tribune: It is an evidence of how little real public opinion there is in the Territories that the reductions the Government is making in the Northwest Mounted Police have provoked so little protest. In Macleod, which locally is particularly affected, it would seem, from our news columns, that some little stir is being made. But the matter is one of Territorial importance. Much greater issues are involved than the federal expenditure the reduction withdraws from certain posts. The Tribune is no advocate of extravagance. But it is a fallacious economy to argue that because order prevails it is necessary to begin to abolish the force through whose existence order rules. The N. W. M. P. owes as much of its power to its moral force as to its numerical strength. But when its numerical strength is whittled away it is certain that the confidence which creates its moral force will be dissipated. No one can say that, considering the size of the country, the present number of the force is too great. It surprises outside observers how so few have done so much.
